A SHIFT IN FOCUS

- “Resiliency” as umbrella
- Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG)
- Climate Resiliency / GreeNR
- Affordable Housing / Affordable Housing Policy
- Amendments to DOZ Regulations
- Local Hires and MWBE Development and Opportunities / UTEP
- Community Development

DOZ UPDATES

- Recent reflection had led to notable changes to the DOZ
- Considerations included, social equity & climate resiliency
 - Sustainable development
 - Open space
 - Affordable housing
- CBB updates: climate resiliency
- State Environmental Quality Review Act (SEQRA)
 - DOZ boundary in an urbanized area largely free of existing environmental constraints
 - Zoning adopted w/completion of GEIS
 - Individual developments require site specific analysis under SEQRA

GREENR

- Sustainable vision for New Rochelle
- 20 year sustainability plan adopted in 2011
- Includes recommendations for:
 - Green Building Standards
 - Transit-Oriented Smart Growth
 - Waterfront Access & Enjoyment
 - Pedestrian/Bicycle Mobility & Safety
 - Sustainable Mobility
- Recognized technology, regulation and culture will change
- Accordingly, GreeNR Update in progress
- Continues to inform and guide policy decisions

CONTEXT

- Adopted the Downtown Overlay Zone (DOZ) in 2015
- 32 projects approved
 - 10 complete, 11 under construction
- These include 1,017 affordable units
- Code required 10% set-aside at 80% AMI

AFFORDABLE HOUSING

- New Rochelle has been a leader in affordable housing
- Affordable Housing requirements established in 2006
- Strengthened in 2021 to create deeper levels of affordability and eliminate off-site provisions
- Priority allocation for affordable units

UNIFORM TAX EXEMPTION POLICY

- Modernize UTEP to reflect social equity and sustainability values
- Achieve measurable improvements to local and minority-owned businesses and individual employment participation in ongoing New Rochelle development
- Approach:
 - Tie IDA incentives to achievement of specific targets
 - Create a local investment fund supported by IDA fees to enhance local training and business incubation programs
