

Welcome, Visiting Scholars!

The Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University would like to welcome you as a Visiting Scholar! During your stay, you are responsible for complying with the Pace University Guiding Principles of Conduct, published in the Student Handbook, <https://law.pace.edu/campus-life/school-policies-and-procedures>. You will conduct legal research as a member of the academic community at Pace Law School. All Visiting Scholars are supervised by a Pace Law School faculty member, who will offer you support, feedback, and overall guidance in your research. Some of the terms of your appointment as a Visiting Scholar are outlined below. Please refer to the Visiting Scholar Website, <https://law.pace.edu/graduate/visiting-scholar-program> and your appointment letter for the complete terms of your appointment.

What is included:

- You shall receive the following:
 - Pace ID card
 - Username and password for free WIFI access
 - Pace Law School email address
- Access to the Pace Law Library stacks and open study spaces
- Access to library computer labs
- Ability to attend all lectures as well as on-campus events
- Ability to audit classes with the permission of your advisor and the professor teaching the course
- Email access to your advisor
- Access to online resources including Lexis, Bloomberg Law, and Westlaw provided that the Law School's agreements with those vendors permit Visiting Scholars to access those resources
 - Free Lexis printing when using the dedicated Lexis printers in the computer lab

What is NOT included:

- Access to the Pace One Card System
- Office space or use of a dedicated computer
- Borrowing privileges, interlibrary loans, and document delivery
- Printing and photocopying
- Use of library study rooms
- Externships