

Meal Plan Exemption/Reduction for Medical Accommodations

Assistance is available to students with disabilities through the Student Accessibility Services (SAS) goal is to enable students to have equal access to Pace University's educational programs and facilities.

SAS handles all accommodations for the University including meal plan waivers for medical accommodations.

For more information about SAS and all the services they offer visit the Student Accessibility website.

To apply for a meal plan accommodation please contact the following offices:

- For NYC Students please email sasnyc@pace.edu or call (212) 346-1199 to schedule an intake appointment.
- For Pleasantville Students please email sasplv@pace.edu or call (914) 773-3201 to schedule an intake appointment.

If you are granted an accommodation in any form for a meal plan reduction, exemption, or downgrade SAS will contact you directly notifying you of the terms of your accommodation.

It is the student's responsibility to ensure Auxiliary Services is notified about the meal plan accommodation and that the meal plan is adjusted each semester and academic year. Meal plans are not automatically adjusted. Each semester students must notify Auxiliary Services.

Note: Meal Plan accommodations are not retroactive and will only go into effect the semester it was approved.

For Meal Plan Accommodation appeals please speak with SAS directly for more information about the appeal's process.
