HONORS

Resolution, The 79th Texas Legislature (2006) (in honor of Professor Michele Deitch and me for our work in organizing a conference that focused on the oversight of U.S. prisons and jails. The resolution commended us for stimulating dialogue and debate that would "lead to significant reforms within the U.S. criminal justice system.").

PAST PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1981 - 1984	American Civil Liberties Union Foundation Associate Director - Children's Rights Project
Summer 1990	Acting Project Director, American Civil Liberties Union Foundation, Children's Rights Project

The Children's Rights Project, a special project of the American Civil Liberties Union, engaged in a nationwide program of litigation that focuses on the protection of the constitutional rights of homeless minors. As Associate Director, I shared responsibility for litigation, fund raising, public speaking and general supervision of the legal staff. I was directly responsible for hiring, training and supervising law students and legal assistants.

1977 - 1980 The Legal Aid Society
Project Director, Prisoners' Rights Project

1973 - 1977 The Legal Aid Society
Staff Attorney - Prisoners' Rights Project

The Prisoners' Rights Project is a test case unit of the Legal Aid Society that seeks to protect the constitutional rights of prisoners and pre-trial detainees. I had extensive litigation experience in this position both at the trial and appellate levels, primarily in federal court. As Project Director, I was responsible for the operation of the office, the supervision of ten attorneys, and a support staff of secretaries, paralegal workers and law students.

1970 - 1973 Harlem Assertion of Rights, Inc.
Staff Attorney

As staff attorney in a neighborhood law office, I represented inner city, poor clients with a wide variety of legal problems and engaged in an extensive court litigation practice.
