

ACADEMICALLY DISTINGUISHED. EXCEPTIONALLY GUIDED.

PFORZHEIMER HONORS COLLEGE: An exclusive community of high-achievers.

SCHOLARSHIP. Students are reviewed for the Honors College at the point of admission by admissions counselors and the Honors College—no separate application is required. Accepted students receive a $15,000 minimum annual scholarship, and the median scholarship is $27,500.

MENTORING. Our one-to-one mentoring and specialized faculty advisement will help you design your own four-year path and challenge you to realize your greatest potential. As an incoming student, you'll also be paired with a student mentor who will help guide you through your first year.

ACCESS. As an Honors student, you'll have access to innovative and exclusive Honors courses; early registration; and exclusive events, programs, and lectures. Plus, you will have the opportunity to count internships and study abroad experiences for Honors credit, and are also eligible to apply for a $1,000 grant toward research as well as study abroad.

COMMUNITY. A tight-knit group, Honors College students will be your peers, your friends, your study partners, your roommates, your network, and even your mentors.

DISTINCTION. Honors students are awarded highly selective and esteemed awards, including Fulbright, James Madison, Jeanette K. Watson, Gilman, National Science Foundation, and Harry S. Truman scholarships. Our students also present advanced research at national and international conferences.

> Business Honors Program

From your first year to your senior year, Lubin offers additional opportunities and rewards that will help you become an outstanding business leader.

Hear from Honors College students and faculty at

www.PACE.edu/HonorsVideo

Association of Latino Professionals in Finance and Accounting

Goldman Sachs intern

National College Fed Challenge champion

COO of non-profit charity for homeless

This is my
PACEPATH

ARGENYS
MORBAN '20

New York, NY

ECONOMICS