

Robert S. Tucker

TUCKER JOINS PACE BOARD

Robert S. Tucker has been appointed to Pace University's board of trustees. Tucker is chairman and chief executive officer of T&M Protection Resources, a global security and investigations company based in New York City. He lives in Scarsdale.

Tucker's grandfather was opera tenor Richard Tucker.

Marvin Krislov, Pace's president, said, "We're proud that he is an alumnus of the Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University, and we're even prouder that he's joining our board of trustees."

Tucker also serves as a commissioner on the Westchester County Police Board, a role he was appointed to in January 2017.