¹ Significant change is generally interpreted as requiring the approval of the New York State Education Department. This includes: Cumulative change of one-third or more of the minimum credits required for the award, Changes in a program's focus or design, Adding or eliminating an option or concentration, Eliminating a requirement for program completion, Altering the liberal arts and science content in a way that changes the degree classification, Program title, Program award, Discontinuing a program, Format change, and Creating a new program from a concentration/track in an existing program.

² If there are deletions or additions of courses that are taken in another department, that department must be informed.

³ A program that is already offered on one campus must be approved as a new program on the new campus before it can be offered on that campus. If a new program proposal requires a master plan amendment (MPA) according to NYSED regulations, the MPA materials should be included with the proposal.

⁴ Programs that anticipate additional funds must complete a Business Case/ Financial Proforma.

⁵ When there is a degree modality change involving Distance Education, please perform a review and consultation with Professional Education and Special Programs.
